

Virtual Millennial Game Night

Tuesday, May 26, 2020

6:30 PM – 7:30 PM

Virtual Millennial game Night is an opportunity for teens and young adults with high-functioning Autism or Asperger's disorder, developmental disorders, social anxiety, and other social challenges to connect with one another in an online platform. Group consists of a themed game night or activity and isled by facilitators who will provide constructive feedback and monitoring. This group is intended for individuals who want to get to know other people in their age group, stay socially engaged, practice social skills, and have fun!

*Please note registration for attendance is required by 12:00pm on Tuesday May 26, 2020.

1. Registration for group is required to allow for appropriate staffing.
2. Participants are encouraged to bring ideas of virtual games to share with group.
3. Please do not invite siblings or young children to group to maintain privacy of our participants.
4. FREE for teens and young adults ages 16 and up!
5. To register please call 847-755-8536 or AHBHHHEResourceCenter@amitahealth.org
6. Participants will receive virtual meeting information after registration.